

Journal – Phase 5

To be completed the day(s) you work on your experiment. Make sure you describe what happens, what is going well and what is going wrong and any other observation you make. If you make any changes/adjustments, you need to describe those as well. You should describe everything that you do for the experiment from start to finish in this journal.

Date & Time	Details of what happened